My Summer Vacation

I liked my summer holiday so much. This summer, I went to Dongguan for my holiday. I visited my grandparents and spent two weeks with them.

I helped my grandparents with the housework and went cycling with them. My grandfather taught me how to write Chinese calligraphy. I also drew pictures and watched movies with my mother.

What a happy and meaningful summer holiday!

At the Cake Shop

One day, Sam went to a famous cake shop because he wanted to buy a delicious cake for his mother. It was Mum's birthday. He looked through the glass window and saw a colourful strawberry cake with red strawberries on top. He saw a chocolate cake, too. It looked more delicious than the strawberry cake. Then, he saw the price of the cake. It was one hundred dollars! It was expensive but he still wanted to buy it anyway. Suddenly, Sam realized that he lost his wallet. He look around and found that it was on the floor because there was a huge hole in his pocket! He felt relieved. His mother was pleased. Sam sang a birthday song. Then, they ate the cake. It was tasty. They had a happy time.

My Halloween Costume

Look! Who am I? I have small eyes and a small nose. My mouth is big and my ears are big, too. I have an oval face with small glasses because my eyes are so small. Oh, I look so funny.

I have a tall umbrella but my hat is taller than it. I also wear mittens because I am cold!

I am in a black suit. I look so cool and smart in the suit. I wear big sandals, too. They look funny!

Exploring Macau

Last Monday, I visited Macau with my family. I remember we drove over the Hong Kong-Zhuhai-Macau Bridge by bus. The sight of the beautiful landscape outside filled me with joy.

My most unforgettable activity was playing in the water park. I went on a colorful water slide there. It was very exciting. After that, I had a hot pot. It was delicious.

Hopefully, I can visit Macau again in the future.

My Dad's Job

My dad is a construction worker. He builds a lot of buildings, skyscrapers, hotels, roads and tunnels. He is very strong because he has to carry bricks to build buildings. He is also very brave because he has to climb to the top of the skyscrapers to work.

I think being a construction worker is meaningful because construction workers need to build roads, buildings and tunnels for people. It is also very stressful because they need to finish their work on time.

I do not want to be a construction worker when I grow up because the working hours are long.
